

Second Calgary-Freiburg Workshop

Concepts, Discourses and Practices of Resilience in the Environmental Humanities

Friday, 6 May 2022

9:30 Coffee & Tea

10:00-10:30: Welcome, Introduction and Summary of December Workshop

Melanie Arndt & Petra Dolata

10:30-12:00: Anthropology & Media and Culture Studies

Chair: Hartmut Fünfgeld

Evi Zemanek, Freiburg:

Risk and Resilience in Satirical Contributions to Ozone Research

Anna Bettini, CIH, Calgary:

Growing Energy Resilient Communities?
Discussion on Just Transition Strategies in Taranaki, New Zealand

Sabrina Peric, CIH, Calgary:

Rejecting Resilience: Colonialism, Kinship and Obligation in Catastrophic Times

12:00-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:30: History

Chair: Evi Zemanek

Melanie Arndt, Freiburg:

The Warmth of Welfare. Resilience through New Heating Systems at the Turn of the 19th and 20th Century

Petra Dolata, CIH, Calgary:

Resilience and Energy Transitions: A Historical Discussion

Sabine Dabringhaus, Freiburg:

Authoritarian Environmentalism or Ecological Civilisation? Chinese Perspectives on the Climate Crisis

Lena Krause, Freiburg:

Copper and Energy Security: First Reflections

15:30-16:00 Coffee & Cake

16:00-17:00: Political Science & Geography

Chair: Sabrina Peric

Hartmut Fünfgeld, Freiburg:

The Justice Implications of Resilience Framing in Urban Policy and Planning

Roberta Rice, CIH, Calgary (online):

Resource Governance and Resilience Theory: Indigenous Rights in Latin America's Extractives Sector

17:00-18:00: Discussion of Special Feature Proposal (hybrid)

BREAK

19:00 Dinner at a Restaurant with Baden Cuisine

Saturday, 6 May 2022

9:30 Coffee & Tea

10:00-12:30: Discussion of Special Feature Proposal and Future Plans

12:30-14:00 Lunch

14:30-17:00 Excursion Solar Village Schlierberg

Emergency contact:

Melanie Arndt +49 179 4885306

FRIAS

FREIBURG INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES
ALBERT-LUDWIGS-UNIVERSITÄT FREIBURG