Autophagic Membrane Trafficking & Dynamics in Aging and Disease

January 29- 31, 2016 Saig, Germany

Organizers:

Klaus Aktories, Jörn Dengjel, Stefan Eimer, Gian Maria Fimia, Tobias B. Huber, Frank Madeo
FRIAS Freiburg Institute for Advanced Studies, Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg, Germany

The workshop will focus on discussing new findings on the molecular mechanisms of autophagic membrane trafficking and dynamics and its deregulation in ageing and disease.

Keynote Speaker:

Daniel J. Klionsky, Ann Arbor

Autophagosome formation:

Sharon Tooze, London
James Hurley, Berkeley
Patrice Codogno, Paris
Tassula Proikas-Cezanne, Tuebingen

Mitophagy in aging and disease:

Hagai Abeliovich, Rehovot
Richard Youle, Bethesda
Nektarios Tavernarakis, Crete

Perturbations of autophagy by toxins:

Craig R. Roy, New Haven
Serge Mostowy, London

Autophagy and translational medicine:

Pierre-Louis Tharaux, Paris
David Rubinsztein, Cambridge
Marco Sandri, Padova

Autophagy and metabolism:

Patricia Boya, Madrid
Guido Kroemer, Paris
Jennifer Lippincott-Schwartz, Bethesda
Frank Madeo, Graz

Molecular mechanisms of autophagy:

Ivan Dikic, Frankfurt
Gian Maria Fimia, Rome
Tamotsu Yoshimori, Osaka
Sascha Martens, Vienna

Location: Hotel Saigerhöh, Lenzkirch, Black Forest, Germany
