Requested project funding

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.
Only one submission per applicant is allowed.

1. Living allowance

A formal employment contract with the University of Freiburg valid for the duration of the fellowship will be drawn up for each individual participant in the FCFP. By signing an employment contract with the University of Freiburg, all fellows are covered by national insurance (unemployment, pension, health and accident insurance). Salary is based on the official pay scale table for the German public service, pay grade E13.

2. Mobility allowance

In general, the mobility allowance covers one inbound and outbound journey (on the basis of state travel regulations, i. e. public transport, economy class flight). For uninterrupted research stays of seven months or longer one extra homeward journey and part of the removal costs (on the basis of state regulations for removal expenditures, max. 1.500 Euro) can be refunded.

Travel expenses (requested budget in Euro)

Inbound, outbound, extra homeward journey

Contribution to removal costs (requested budget in Euro)

3. Research cost contribution

Apart from the costs for salary and mobility a research cost contribution of up to 1.050 Euro per month (experimental sciences) or 450 Euro per month (social and theoretical sciences) can be requested. A detailed explanation should be included in the project proposal. For allowable costs please refer to the fellowship application website.
