1. Living and mobility allowance

An FCFP Junior Fellowship includes a full time employment contract with the University of Freiburg, valid for the duration of the fellowship. As part of the employment contract with the University of Freiburg, a Junior Fellow is covered by national insurance (unemployment, pension, health and accident insurance).

A researcher in the junior scheme receives approximately 4,600 € per month pre-tax (depending on personal premises around 30–35 % for tax and mandatory contributions to social security will be deducted). Fellows accompanied by at least one child receive an additional monthly family allowance of 250 €.

A mobility allowance of 125 € per month covers relocation costs.

2. Research cost contribution

Apart from the costs for salary and mobility a research cost contribution of up to 1.050 Euro per month (experimental sciences) or 450 Euro per month (social and theoretical sciences) can be requested. A detailed explanation should be included in the project proposal. For allowable costs please refer to the fellowship application website.

Requested research cost contribution in Euro

3. Additional financial support

In accordance with state travel regulations, fellows will receive a travel allowance covering the costs of the inbound and outbound journey as well as of one extra homeward journey for uninterrupted fellowship stays of seven months or longer.

All fellows will have at their disposal a budget of 150 € per month for individual training.
