

TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE
WITHOUT TRANSITION?
REDRESSING PAST INJUSTICES
UNDER STATE SOCIALISM

International Conference

FRIAS, Albertstr. 19 / February 21-23, 2019

Keynote: Nanci Adler “The Future of the Soviet Past: Russia and the Challenge of the Age of Transitional Justice”
Lecture Hall, FRIAS / February 22, 17:00

Speakers:

Samuel Casper	Flora Lichaa	Isabelle Thireau
Mark Czeller	Yi Lu	Sebastian Veg
Marc Elie	Andrei Muraru	Martin Weiser
Puck Engman	Qin Shao	Matthew Wills
Qian He	Agnes Schick-Chen	Long Yang
Huajie Jiang	Steve Smith	Zhaojin Zeng
Daniel Leese	Guoqing Song	Man Zhang

Registration: Ms. Man Zhang, man.zhang@sinologie.uni-freiburg.de
Organizer: Prof. Dr. Daniel Leese, Institute for Chinese Studies / FRIAS

www.maoistlegacy.de

Transitional Justice without Transition? Redressing Past Injustices under State Socialism

University of Freiburg
FRIAS, Conference Room
February 21-23, 2019

February 21

14:00-14:15 Introduction

14:15-16:15 Chair: Daniel Leese
Comments: Isabelle Thireau

Qin Shao (The College of New Jersey)

The Limit of Transitional Justice from Mao to Post-Mao: A Case Study in Shanghai

Puck Engman (University of Freiburg)

What Protection of Ownership when Rebellion is Justified? Standards of Entitlement during and after the Chinese Cultural Revolution

Zhaojin Zeng (University of Pittsburgh)

Between Mao's Revolution, Chinese Traditions, and Modern Law: Reclaiming Property Rights in Post-Reform China

16:15-16:45 Coffee break

16:45-18:45 Chair: Marc Elie
Comments: Steve Smith

Andrei Muraru (National University of Political Studies and Public Administration-Bucharest)

The Rehabilitation Process in Communist Romania: From the 'Thaw' under Gheorghiu-Dej to the Fake de-Stalinization under Ceaușescu. A Comparative Perspective

Guoqing Song (University of Freiburg)

Reparation, Compensation, and Rehabilitation: The Case of the Guangxi Killings

Huajie Jiang (East China Normal University)

Redressing Past Injustices inside the Chinese Academy of Sciences: Revisiting He Ding's Diary (1966-1979)

19:30 Conference Dinner

February 22

-
- 9:00-11:00 Chair: Qin Shao
 Comments: Marc Elie
Samuel Casper (Hunter College and The Cooper Union)
 Making Rehabilitation Work in the Post-Stalin Soviet Union: The Case of the Naneishvili-Kosarevs
Mark Czeller (University of Oxford)
 ‘Summarizing the Lessons of History’: The Investigation and Criticism of Early-PRC ‘Leftism’ in Guangdong during the Second Decade of the Post-Mao Era
Long Yang (University of Oxford)
 The Long Shadow of the Socialist Education Movement: Rural Cadres, Disciplinary Organs, and the Redress of Injustices in the Early Post-Mao Era, 1979-1983
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-13:30 Chair: Zhaojin Zeng
 Comments: Sebastian Veg
Yi Lu (Harvard University)
 Red Revolution, Black Materials: Archival Self in Mao’s China
Matthew Wills (University of California San Diego)
 Bibliographic Iconoclasm: Censoring the Cultural Revolution and the “Gang of Four,” 1976-1980
Qian He (University of Washington)
 Unmasking as Justice: Image and the Trial of the Gang of the Four
- 13:30-14:30 Lunch (only for speakers)
- 14:30-16:30 Chair: Steve Smith
 Comments: Agnes Schick-Chen
Man Zhang (University of Freiburg)
 Narrative Scripts and Voices of Alleged Perpetrators of the Cultural Revolution
Flora Lichaa (EHESS)
 Bringing Illegitimate Memory to Life - An Analysis of the Documentary Films He Fengming and Dead Souls
Sebastian Veg (EHESS)
 Confessing and Repenting: The chanhuilu Column of Yanhuang Chunqiu
- 16:30-17:00 Coffee break
- 17:00-18:30 Public Keynote (FRIAS Lecture Hall)
Nanci Adler (University of Amsterdam)
 The Future of the Soviet Past: Russia and the Challenge of the Age of Transitional Justice
- 19:30 Conference Dinner

February 23

- 9:00-11:00 Chair: Isabelle Thireau
Comments: Nanci Adler
- Martin Weiser
Transitional Justice in North Korea: Contextualizing Limited Evidence for a Least-Likely Case
- Agnes Schick-Chen (University of Vienna)
Re-Theorizing Justice in Late Transition: Explanatory Justice and the Case of Socialist China
- Daniel Leese (University of Freiburg)
The Politics of Historical Justice after the Death of Mao Zedong in Perspective
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-13:00 Moderator: Daniel Leese (University of Freiburg)
- Roundtable
- Steve Smith (University of Oxford)
- Isabelle Thireau (EHESS)
- Marc Elie (CNRS)
- 13:00-13:30 Final discussion and publication plans
- 13:30 Farewell Lunch (only for speakers)

1 FRIAS, Albertstraße 19

DB Freiburg Train Station

(From DB to 1: 10-15 mins walk)

